Honolulu, Oahu - When King Kamehameha III moved into the seat of power in the 1840's, the air was saturated with the scent of gardenias and jasmine. It still is! Although Honolulu is alive with big-city sophistication, it retains the languid allure of the tropics. Enjoy the museums, historic Pearl Harbor, golden Waikiki Beach, and the spectacular sunrises over Diamond Head.

Nawiliwili, Kauai - The land is a vision of extraordinary beauty with lush rainforest, smooth rounded mountains, cascading waterfalls, and towering ocean cliffs. Rainbows glow over Waimea Canyon, and water soars over 50 feet in the air at Poipu's spouting horn.

Lahaina, Maui - The Hawaiian phrase "Maui No Ka Oi" means "Maui is the best." You'll agree, after a visit to the enchanting Valley Isle. Explore the old whaling town of Lahaina and the nearby West Maui Mountains. Or explore Haleakala National Park and its 10,000-foot volcano crater. Then travel the road to Hana and experience a true taste of old Hawaii. Or snorkel off the emerald island of Lanai, where you'll delight in pristine reefs and colorful marine life.

Kailua, Kona - Located along Hawaii's western shore, where the slopes of Mauna Loa and Hualalai meet the sea, the Kona Coast is a region of endless lava fields and golden Pacific sunsets. The clear waters are perfect for diving, snorkeling, and deep-sea fishing. At the heart of the Kona Coast lies the charming resort village of Kailua. Because two other "Kailuas" exist within the state, the Big Island's Kailua is often called Kailua-Kona for clarity.

Hilo, Hawaii - The Big Island. The Orchid Isle. The Volcano Island. You'd expect a place that has inspired so many descriptive nicknames to be a land of rare beauty and wonder. Such is the island of Hawaii. Its 4,050 square miles are home to the snow-capped, 14,000-foot peaks of Mauna Loa and Mauna Kea, the fiery landscape of Hawaii Volcanoes National Park, vast macadamia nut plantations, black-sand beaches, orchid-filled forests and posh resorts. Hilo is this island's capital.

Seattle, Washington - Seattle is often characterized by its laid-back attitude and rainy climate, but this thriving metropolis also offers one-of-a-kind architecture, the Olympic and Cascade mountain ranges, and a unique urban sophistication. A trip to Seattle isn't complete without visiting Pike Place Market. Here, you can browse the stalls of local merchants and artists, take in a street performance, or watch fishmongers play catch with the catch of the day.

Monthly payments available for your convenience.

Deposit and Final Payment: A deposit of $500.00 per person and optional insurance is due at time of booking. Second deposit of $500.00 is due September 1, 2010. Final payment is due on or before January 28, 2011. Monthly payment available for your convenience, contact Amy at World of Travel for details. (614) 451-4882 x 208.

Cancellation: Cancellations made after September 1, 2010 subject to a cancellation handling fee of $50.00 per person. Cancellations made on or after January 28, 2011 are nonrefundable.

Cancellation Insurance: World of Travel strongly suggests you take travel cancellation insurance. Insurance covers cancellation due to illness, death in the family, medical, baggage and trip interruption (Covers most pre-existing conditions.) Rates are listed with the cruise costs. In order to qualify for the "pre-existing condition" waiver, you must purchase the insurance within 14 days of making your deposit. We recommend sending in your insurance payment with your initial deposit. NOTE: World of Travel will not make any representations about what conditions or occurrences trip cancellation insurance will cover. Should you have question regarding coverage in the Travelex policy please call Travelex Insurance Company at 800-965-8859 for clarification. Reference plan 725C.
